Fifth Amendment Stand by Baker

Refuses to Hand Over Subpoenaed Documents

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bobby Baker, former secretary of the Senate Democratic majority, refused today to turn over subpoenaed documents to senators investigating an alleged political payoff from a government contract. He said they "might tend to incriminate me." And, on the same ground, Baker refused to answer questions.

Insurance man Don B. Reynolds in sworn testimony Tuesday pictured himself as the "bag man" for Baker and politician Matthew H. McCloskey in a deal to secretly funnel money from a stadium construction contract here into the 1960 Kennedy-Johnson campaign fund.

Fresh Orders For Taylor's Viet Mission

Possible Expansion Of US Efforts Are Indicated

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor, armed with fresh orders from President Johnson, will fly back to South Viet Nam shortly to work out new plans for intensifying the war against Communist guerrillas.

Presumably, prospective new military actions could include air strikes against the Communist supply lines that run from North to South Viet Nam through the mountainous jungles of Laos.

A White House statement reporting on the conference Johnson held Tuesday with Taylor and other top policy advisers withheld details on prospective actions.

Significantly, however, the statement emphasized Red use of the supply lines through Laos and said there is evidence of increasing support to the Viet Cong rebels from Communist North Viet Nam. The statement also said that Taylor would "consult urgently" with the South Viet Nam government on what should be done to improve the war effort.

Against the background of mounting expectation of decisions on whether the war should be broadened beyond the boundaries of South Viet Nam, the White House statement summarized military, political and economic conditions in the country and said:

"The meeting reviewed the

City Without Taxes

MADISONVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Madisonville City Council has announced that 1965 will be the 11th straight year without a property or poll tax in the city.

The council did, however, set a levy Tuesday of 20 cents per $100 fair cash value on shares in banks and trust companies. This revenue will go to operation of the city library.

Madisonville, a city of 17,000, gets its revenue through the city-owned and operated light and water system.

Salesmanship Challenge to Farmers

Farmers and businessmen must become closer partners and the man on the farm is going to have to adopt more of a retail merchant's competitive salesmanship practices if agriculture is to continue to thrive, Pettis County farmers were told here Tuesday night.

Jim Leathers, director of the Kansas City Livestock Market Foundation, spoke to some 120 persons at the annual Balanced Farming recognition banquet in the basement of the First Methodist Church. Leathers directs a market foundation geared to provide assistance to market customers and cooperate in activities of farm organizations in the area.

Pointing to the city businessman's keen sense of salesmanship ingenuity, Leathers said, "The thing we've got to learn as farm people is to capitalize on some of this salesmanship and competition for the dollar."

"We've revolutionized farming in the past few years," he said, every 1,000 people in Kansas are either directly or indirectly connected with agriculture. Seventy per cent of the farm income goes toward expenses, he said, and the other 30 per cent goes for the farm home, automobiles and even food purchases.

"This shows that you're pretty valuable to them (the business men)," he told the group.

Prior to joining the market foundation, Leathers served three years as an extension agent and was well known for a seven-year tenure as associate farm director for radio stations KMBC and KFRM in Kansas City.

11 Families Honored

During the presentation of awards, 11 Pettis County farm families were recognized for their work in the University of Missouri's extension Balanced Farming program — three families for 10 years in the program.

Hitting on the interdependence of farmers and businessmen,

Leathers handed out the three final Balanced Farming plaques on behalf of the Kansas City

Chamber of Commerce to Mr. and Mrs. Loren Arnett, of near Ionia; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wicker, Houstonia; and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Schuber, Route 1, Hughesville.

At the conclusion of the program, Paul Neitzert presented a sugar bowl filled with a long roll of $1 bills to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lewellen on behalf of the families in the Balanced Farming program. Lewellen is the county Balanced Farming agent who works closely with the some 50 rural families who enroll each year in the program and pay a $25 annual fee to take part.

Paul Neitzert gave the invocation and Jack Smith served as master of ceremonies.

Among the guests introduced were the three judges of the Pettis County Court, Presiding Judge C. Berry Elliott and Associate Judges E. L. Birdsong, of the Eastern District, and C. M. Purchase, of the Western

Net 113 Weapons In Raid

Arsenal Gain by Viet Cong

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — The Viet Cong arsenal was richer today by 113 weapons — including 33 machine guns — which Communist guerrillas captured after wiping out a government district headquarters.

North Viet Nam claimed that 12 U.S. planes strafed and bombed three villages Tuesday in its half of the demilitarized zone between North and South Viet Nam.

The big loss of weapons — enough to arm a reinforced company of guerrillas — was suffered Tuesday at Thien Giao, 100 miles northeast of Saigon. About 300 Communist guerrillas smashed into the town and killed the district chief and 13 of his men. Thirty defenders were wounded, six were missing and two Viet Cong were reported killed.

Responding to a call for help, flare-dropping planes and two companies of ground troops from the coastal town of Phan Thiet headed for Thien Giao.

When the ground troops arrived just before dawn, the Viet Cong had left with their booty.

The North Vietnamese broadcast said Tuesday's bombing was the fourth recent attack on North Vietnamese territory. Radio Hanoi charged that U.S. planes bombed and strafed five villages in the demilitarized zone on Oct. 16 and Oct. 17 and on Nov. 25. "U.S. puppet warships" shelled Co Con Island, off the northern part of the zone.

American military sources in Bangkok said that a search for two U.S. T28 planes which disappeared over Laos Nov. 19 has been called off.

The planes, with four U.S. airmen aboard, were on their way to South Viet Nam from Udorn, an air base in northeast Thailand.

Complaints Flow To City Hall On Garbage 'Misses'

City Council may have to approve extended overtime work for sanitation employees making catch-up collections for residences missed on holidays if they are to keep abreast of complaints coming in to city officials, according to Mayor L. Studer.

But no formal consideration of such action can be expected before the council's next regular meeting Monday night, Dec. 7.

Mayor Studer acknowledged today that he has received a number of complaints from citizens who missed a scheduled garbage collection through the Thanksgiving holiday. Studer said he plans to bring these complaints to the attention of city councilmen Monday night for their consideration.

We rejoice in the honor of meeting you," the Pope said in his address to Shastri and Husain.

After praising India for its efforts for world peace, the Pope added:

"We come as a pilgrim, a pilgrim of peace, of joy and love.

We greet all the Indian people, every man, woman and child.

And we extend our greeting to all the nations of Asia, to every nation in the world."

While there were nearly 100,000 Indians at the airport, many barefoot and wearing the dhoti or robe of their impoverished land, only about 8,000 were permitted to enter the airport. Many of these were Indian Catholics.

Freeze Dips Into Dixie

White Nightmare Shrouds the East

PORLAND, Maine — (AP) — Men and snow removal equipment in northern and eastern Maine labored today to clear highways of heavy drifted snow that stranded hundreds of travelers in a chaotic white nightmare.

The snow Tuesday skipped past most of the Atlantic Coast but smacked sections of Maine. Driven by winds which sometimes reached 60 miles an hour, the snow piled in drifts up to eight feet.

At least two persons died Tuesday in the blizzard which heaped nearly two feet of snow on Eastport and heavy amounts on other areas of Hancock, Washington and Aroostook counties.

Snow and cold prevailed across the northern half of the nation from the Rockies to the western slopes of the Appalachians.

Freezing weather again areas deep in the Southland, with the mercury dropping to 24 in Macon, Ga., and 29 in Tallahassee, Fla., Montgomery, Ark., and Albany, Ga.

The below zero belt covered northern Midwest areas with 11 m.p.h. and high waves.

The temperature in Maine was in the low teens in northern sections.

At least two deaths, both in Maine, have been attributed to the storm. A 72-year-old Stoddard, Maine, woman died apparently of exhaustion, after struggling through foot-deep drifts. Near Presque Isle, Maine, Elmer K. Stackhouse, a snowplow operator, was found dead as the storm abated.

Hundreds of Maine motorists were stranded Monday night as the swirling snow piled ever deeper on highways. About 100 persons crammed into a service station at Machias. At Presque Isle every hotel, motel or rooming house space was taken by travelers blocked by the storm.

Sections of U.S. 1 were clogged by snow or by traffic jams of up to 50 cars and trucks.

Off Nova Scotia, near Halifax, the 3,800-ton Liberian freighter Fury was driven aground by winds estimated as high as 90

Rebels Won't Lie DownProspects of Lengthy War In Ending Congo Rebellion

By ROBIN MANNOCK

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP) — The rebel "Congolese People's Republic" in Stanleyville is dead, but the revolt in the northeastern Congo refuses to lie down.

Disorganized, its lines of communication shattered by seizure of the rebel capital, its leaders hiding or in flight, the Communist-backed insurrection is being driven into the dark rain forests and impenetrable bush.

Premier Moise Tshombe's tough mercenary fighters from South Africa, Rhodesia and Belgium go in shooting when they capture towns and rescue white hostages, but the rebels close in behind them as their armed columns roll out.

For the South African mercenary commander, Maj. Michael Hoare, the difficulty of getting to grips with his enemy raises the prospects of a long, dirty war.

"A military solution is not enough. There must be some sort of political solution as well," says the 46-year-old Dublin-born veteran of war behind the Japanese lines in Burma and in Tshombe's secessionist Katanga.

Some foreign military observers believe it will be months, possibly years, before it is safe to travel through the rebel area without a strong military escort.

Hoare's mercenaries move in trucks bristling with guns. Every tiny hamlet, every crossroads and every clump of bushes where ambushers could lurk is sprayed with machine-gun bullets.

Rarely do the mercenaries see anyone as they drive by. I counted only six humans and two goats while traveling an entire day through rebel territory with Hoare's men. Four old, decrepit men and two were women.

But the mercenaries often find food still bubbling in pots.

Hoare's biggest problem is to consolidate his winnings. He has too few men to spread them around to hold captured towns.

Big centers can be held, but they may have to be supplied from the air.

At the moment, all evidence points to a complete lack of rebel central organization. Their radio network fell apart when the main transmitter at Stanleyville fell into government hands.

The rebels are negotiating with the new government in neighboring Sudan for military aid and permission to use the country as a base. Western diplomats in Khartoum, the Sudan's capital, said they believed there were strong chances the Sudanese government would help them.

Reports received in Khartoum said a number of wounded rebels are being treated in southern Sudan hospitals. But Sudanese officials deny that rebel President Christophe Gbenye and his key lieutenants have crossed into the Sudan.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The launching of the twice-delayed U.N. General Assembly without a head-on clash between the United States and the Soviet Union was seen today as a victory for Secretary-General U Thant.

Delegates said Thant's patience and persistence brought the big powers together Tuesday for one more try at getting the assembly under way without a blowup over the issue of the Soviet Union's unpaid peacekeeping dues and its assembly vote.

As diplomats sat in the General Assembly hall waiting for the 19th session to begin, representatives of the four big powers met in Thant's office and agreed to limit the opening weeks to general policy debate and noncontroversial issues.

During that time a 21-nation committee will try to reach some solution of the issue raised

Severed Finger Was Conclusive Evidence

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Calif. (AP) — David Pehrson, who literally put the finger on himself, is in police custody today.

"I'm wanted in Minnesota," Pehrson, 31, told the desk sergeant Tuesday, holding up a bandaged left hand.

Officers said Pehrson explained that he bungled a safe until the Christmas recess, then prolong the recess until February in hopes some solution could be reached.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko at first said the Soviet Union categorically opposed any indefinite postponement of important business before the assembly. Thant persevered, however, and Gromyko came around Tuesday.

The solution was far from permanent, but it heartened delegates who had feared a collision on finances would result in a Soviet walkout or that the United States might decide to cut its heavy financial support for the United Nations.

burglary last Nov. 13 in Hopkins, Minn. He said the safe he was trying to move slipped off a second dolly and severed the second finger.

While he waited in Orange County jail, police said, confirmation came from Hopkins sheriff's deputies. Yes, a burglary warrant had been issued: detectives had found the finger at the scene and had taken Pehrson's print from it.

Shark Against Shark Solution to Problem

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — The Florida Board of Conservation is pitting shark against shark in an effort to steer them away from commercial fishing nets in the Florida keys.

Sharks are caught with heavy hooks and a flat board is attached to the line. The board slows the wounded shark and tires him. Other sharks, smelling blood, attack their weakened comrade.

Commercial fishermen on both the Atlantic and Gulf sides of the keys have reported uncommonly big schools of sharks

People In The News

The South Africa Press Association reported today that the government gave no reason for the refusal. Presumably the visa was withheld because Armstrong is a Negro.

His brother and two sisters get similar sums. In return they forfeit life interests in trusts of $11.2 million set up by their father, the late Baron Albert Prokof.

Dropouts Get New Guidance From School

ROSEMEAD, Calif. (AP) — Students from 4 to 40 attend the unusual school founded by Mary and Lester Stewart.

One of the basic courses is learning how to read. They also get lots of advice, a good bit of philosophy and considerable personal attention.

The name of the school, housed in an 11-by-60-foot store building, is unusual, too. It's called "Dropouts Anonymous."

Dropouts Anonymous has processed nearly 1,000 persons. Some have gone on to barber or beauty colleges and some are being trained by Los Angeles County as landscape architects.

Some aren't dropouts at all. They are children who need special help.

"We tell our students you should like your job better than eating," says Mrs. Stewart. "Because if you don't eat — if you diet — you probably won't get sick. But working at a job you don't like can make you desperately ill."

In 1939 Mrs. Stewart, now 43, left high school in her senior year. It was strictly a matter of money — the lack of it.

Since then she has undergone an intensive program of self-education. A housewife, she is the mother of three sons who have completed high school.

Although their own children had no trouble staying in school, she and her husband, a machinist, became interested in the children of friends who did have trouble. So two years ago they founded Dropouts Anonymous.

The Stewarts don't honor education for education's sake alone.

"Education is learning, not just getting a diploma," says Mrs. Stewart, adding: "And education doesn't mean a thing if you haven't got something in the noodle to back it up."

Approximately 60 per cent of her students needed help with their reading skill when they entered the tuition-free school.

Classes are held five nights a week from 7 to 10 p.m. Each Friday evening is what Mrs. Stewart calls "true confession night."

"We discuss our goals and ambitions," says Mrs. Stewart. "We toss in an idea and see what happens."

Three adults regularly help the Stewarts with the program, including actress Ruth Warrick. The others are Cal Edinger and Doris Patterson.

One day soon, the Stewarts hope colleges in the area will assign student teachers to the school.

Financial help comes from individuals and from women's clubs.

$2,000 Fire Loss In Women's Dorm

LAMONI, Iowa (AP) — Firemen estimated damage at about $2,000 after a fire broke out late Tuesday in a women's dormitory at Graceland College.

Some of the damage was caused by smoke and water.

The fire was confined to one room. Most of the 94 students housed in the dormitory, Patrons Hall, were out for supper. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Quill Pens

The Supreme Court of the United States still uses quill pens made from the feathers of geese. These are made after strict specifications laid down by Chief Justice John Marshall.

IT'S EASIER FOR SPIDERS — You see these window washers hanging down on their mechanical webs washing the glass of these big modern buildings. This is the way the machinery works. In reality, the rig which runs down the sides of the building is part of a truck. The truck operates on its own roadway on the roof and the scaffolding is like an elevator projecting from it. The truck is anchored at each position and the scaffold descends, held by four stout wires. Truck pictured is on the roof of the new Erieview Plaza in Cleveland, Ohio. It boasts its own garage on the roof.

MOSCOW (AP) — Soviet courts henceforth will presume a defendant innocent until he is proved guilty, Justice Aleksander

Gorkin stated Tuesday in an article in Izvestia, the Soviet government paper.

Gorkin turned aside a view of conservatives, published last summer by a prosecutor, that the court only verifies to what degree an accused person who has been brought to court by the prosecutor is guilty, and whether this criminal deserves punishment."

Instead, Gorkin cited the Soviet criminal code stating that only legally constituted courts can find accused persons guilty or innocent in criminal actions.

LONDON (AP) — Prime Minister Harold Wilson has disclosed that 12 British nuclear scientists and government officials have been removed from their jobs for security reasons since 1950.

Wilson told the House of Commons Tuesday the men were removed because they were foreign-born, had relatives behind the Iron Curtain, or for both reasons.

COLOMBO, Ceylon (AP) — Ceylon's Foreign Ministry has cut references it considers uncomplimentary to Fidel Castro from the Kennedy memorial film "Years of Lightning, Day of Drums."

The film is being shown by the U.S. Information Agency.

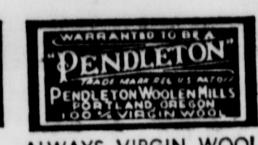

The ministry also cut sections dealing with the Berlin situation and events in Southeast Asia which were considered anti-Communist.

KUCHING, Malaysia (AP) — A British Gurkha patrol killed six Indonesian guerrillas in a state of Sarawak, a military spokesman said today.

On All-Big Eight Team

Near Unanimous Vote For Gale Sayers, Larry Kramer

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Gale Sayers, Kansas halfback, and Larry Kramer, Nebraska offensive tackle, were near-unanimous choices and fullback Jim Grisham and linebacker Carl McAdams of Oklahoma overwhelming picks on the 1964 All-Big Eight football team named Tuesday by the Associated Press.

Bob Devaney of Nebraska was a solid choice for Big Eight Coach of the Year over Phil Cutchin of Oklahoma State. Doug Weaver of Kansas State and Eddie Crowder of Colorado tied for third.

Sayers, the league's career record holder in rushing with 2,675 yards and a 6.5 average, was a first team choice on 37 of 88 ballots, a second team pick on the other. The 235-lb. Kramer, a tremendous blocker, received 86 first team and two second team votes.

The 211-pound Grisham, the Big Eight's no. 3 career rusher and top fullback in career rushing, won 73 first team and eight second team votes. The 215-pound McAdams, one of seven seniors on the first team, got 69 first team and 13 second team votes. Iowa State's two-way fullback, Tom Vaughn, was next with 61 and 25.

Sayers got his quota of long runs—93, 81, 77, 72 and 48 yards—and had the best season of his career in four categories—passing, pass receiving, punt returns and kickoff runbacks. His rushing total fell off from 917 to 633 yards, reflecting the league's tougher defenses.

Joining Sayers and Grisham in the backfield were Gary Lane, Missouri quarterback, a narrow choice over teammate Bobby Hohn and Oklahoma's do-everything Lance Rentzel.

Nebraska's league champs dominated the offensive line, placing ends Tony Jeter and Freeman White, center Lyle Sittler and Kramer. Ralph Neely, 261, of Oklahoma, was a solid choice for the other tackle. The guards were Newt Burton of Oklahoma and Tom Wyrstek of Missouri, in a close race with Carl Schreier.

ner, Oklahoma, and Rod Cutsinger, Oklahoma State.

The closest race for any of the 22 first team spots came at middle guard on the defensive team, where Walt Barnes of Nebraska won with 43 first team and 28 second team votes over Bob Mitts, Kansas State, with 38 and 35. The other defensive linemen all were solid choices, including ends Jack Jaabson of Oklahoma State and Bill Matan of Kansas State, tackles John Van Sielen of Iowa State and Brian Schweda of Kansas.

The other linebacker, a strong choice, was Mike Cox of Iowa State.

Vaughn, a tremendous two-way player, was left off only three ballots and was the top vote-getter in the defensive back field which also had Gus Otto of Missouri, Gary Duff of Kansas and Ken Boston of Missouri. Ted Somerville of Colorado and Johnny Roland, Missouri, were close behind.

Bob Churchich, Nebraska quarterback, edged Bob Skahan of Kansas, another rookie, for sophomore back of the year, with Charlie Brown of Missouri third. In a close four-man race, guard Jim Riley of Oklahoma was named sophomore lineman of the year over George Harvey of Kansas and Mike Grace and Langston Coleman of Nebraska. Coleman, Churchich and end Sam Harris of Colorado were the only sophomores on the first two teams.

Nebraska placed 12 men on the first two teams, Oklahoma 10, Missouri seven, Colorado four, Kansas, Iowa State and Oklahoma State three each and K-State two. The top 44 included 24 seniors, 17 junior and three rookies.

California Continues Win Streak In Tipton Tourney

First seeded California continued their winning streak in the Tipton Basketball Tournament by downing School of the Ozarks 92-63 while Sedalia's Sacred Heart was routed by Tipton 78-47 Tuesday night.

The California Pintos monopolized their game controlling all four quarters of play. They sprang to a lead in the first outstripping the School of the Ozarks 17-12. California again outmaneuvered Osage in the second stanza and left the floor at the half with a widening 43-34 lead.

The Pintos galloped into the third and overwhelmed the opposition outscoring them twice in total points for the quarter action. Osage rallied but was unable to overcome the Pintos as they captured their second victory in the tourney.

Northwest Increases Cage Record

The Northwest high school

Varsity increased their season record to eight wins against two losses when they defeated La Salle at Hughesville, Tuesday night by a score of 101 to 80.

The girls basketball team came out on the short end of the score losing to La Salle 33 to 39.

The Varsity boys moved out front in their game in the first quarter and were never threatened from then out, although the visitors outscored them in the final period. Northwest tallied 26 to 16 in the first stanza and 23-18 in the second for a midway lead of 49-34. In the third period they ran up 28 to 16 while the final quarter went to La Salle 30-24.

Scoring for Northwest was Gary Brownfield 33, Terry Pummill 20, Jerry Vardeman 21, Jim Kessler 4, Jim Wenneke 7, Jim Houchens 5, Freddie Kraft 6 and Paul Coffelt 5. For La Salle it was Bitzenbury 17, Matthews 22, Cook 10, L. Becker, Guthrie and Fiere all scored 4-points each, Ponce 8, Wolpers 6, Hartwig 3 and Schutte 3.

The Tigers' foes will be the Falcons of Glendale High School. Glendale lost its opener to Monett, Mo., in a hotly contested 64 to 62 heart-breaker.

The two teams are reportedly on about an equal par and Friday's clash should prove to be interesting.

Head coach Earl Finley did not announce a definite starting lineup, but did state that it would consist of five of the following seven players: Cye Casey, Hugh Crawford, Randy France, John Johnson, Jim Lamay, Barry Wallace, and Steve Young.

Lutz and Oswald led the Cardinals to victory by pushing 18 points and was followed by Wood and Dellbridge with 14 points each.

The Sacred Heart Gremlins were downed by the Cardinals and were not able to control the quarter scoring once during the game. Tipton bounded ahead of the Gremlins in the first period 13-7 and continued to lead the game at the half. As the teams returned from the half with the score 35-22 Tipton again widened the victory margin. Tipton went wild in the fourth, outstripping the Gremlins 28-12 in that quarter's play.

Experience also is a must if we are to win," Coach Finley stated. "However I'm sure that this will not be a problem after we get a couple more games under our belt."

Preceding the varsity tilt, the "B" team will try for their second win.

A one-fall 20 minute time limit event was a draw between Ron Reed and Bob Geigel. Reed's youthful years were a big advantage over the more experienced Geigel.

Cash Talks In Football Draft Action

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer
Money talks — and makes college coaches scream.

It spoke to Kansas halfback Gale Sayers and Tennessee guard Steve DeLong, giving the Chicago Bears of the National Football League a split Tuesday with the rival American League as the multi-million-dollar pro football war continued.

Sayers and DeLong — both picked on the first round of the NFL draft by the Bears — went different ways. Chicago won the battle for Sayers against the Kansas City Chiefs but lost DeLong to the AFL's San Diego Chargers in the first major breakthrough for the younger league.

Meanwhile, both leagues came under fire from college coaches for signing future players who still have a year of college eligibility remaining but whose college class has graduated and thus are eligible to be drafted.

The two cases involved Los Angeles State tackle Walt Johnson, signed by the NFL's Cleveland Browns, and Arizona State halfback Larry Todd, signed by the Oakland Raiders of the AFL. Coaches from each team said they were considering official protests.

"They don't have any business signing a boy when he has a year to play," said Los Angeles State Coach Homer Bea-

Robertson Gives Former Coach Book Lesson

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ray Crowe, the basketball coach at Indianapolis Attucks High School, has a new book on his shelf today but he won't have to read it to get the message. Oscar Robertson, Crowe's star pupil, has seen it to that.

Robertson returned to Indianapolis Tuesday night and gave his former coach the book "Play Better Basketball" before leading the Cincinnati Royals past the Detroit Pistons 129-106 in a National Basketball Association game.

Oscar, who paced Attucks to Indiana high school championships in 1955 and 1956, connected on 11 of 18 shots from the floor and three of four free throws for a game-high 25 points as the Royals kept pace with Boston's Eastern Division leaders.

The Celtics topped New York in overtime 117-113 behind sharp-shooting Sam Jones and held their 3½-game Eastern bulge. The Los Angeles Lakers, Western Division front-runners, nipped Philadelphia 118-117 and the San Francisco Warriors edged the Baltimore Bullets in double overtime 137-136 in other games.

Missouri Outclasses Illustrious Alumni

COLUMBIA (AP) — Gary Garner scored 23 points, George Flammand had 20 points and 22 rebounds as the Missouri varsity basketball team outclassed some illustrious alumni in a 91-80 victory Tuesday night.

Charley Henke, Missouri's all-time leading scorer who went on to play professionally with the Kansas City Steers, was held to three points. Al Abram was the alumni scoring star with 16 points.

Legislators On Tour Of Institutions

Freshmen legislators of the Missouri House of Representatives have begun inspection trips over the state to various state institutions such as the University of Missouri, state colleges, state hospitals, prisons, etc. This week the group of 35 are on a three-day tour. Similar trip is to be made next week and the following week. Among the group is Joe F. Rains, Pettis County's new Representative.

The first day, Monday, the tour visited the state hospital at Nevada, the state tuberculosis sanitarium at Mt. Vernon, and Southwest Missouri State College in Springfield. Tuesday they went to Rolla to the University at Rolla, and the women's prison at Tipton. Today the group will go to the state training school for boys at Bonneville, and state schools at Marshall and Higginsville.

Next week a two-day school will be held at the University of Missouri for the freshmen legislators this being on Monday and Tuesday. Then the next three days other cities having state institutions will be visited and the same the following week.

"These tours are very educational, especially to the new men entering the legislature," Rains said, "and to me it will be very helpful when legislation comes up regarding such state properties. Although there are a good number of the new members who are not making these inspection trips, I expect to go on all and will also attend the two-day forum."

The group is making the tour in Greyhound buses and is being escorted by two members of the Missouri State Highway Patrol.

That's one of the jobs rumored for the 64-year-old New York Republican since he was defeated for re-election Nov. 3 by Robert F. Kennedy.

But all the affable silver-haired senator will say is that he has had no direct contact with anyone from Hollywood.

"Of course," he mused with tongue-in-cheek during an interview. "There's a dearth of mature stars in Hollywood now."

He was one of several unpaid senatorial consultants who helped producer Otto Preminger with the movie "Advise and Consent" several years ago.

In addition to a Hollywood job, Keating has also been rumored for baseball commissioner, ambassador to Israel and an unspecified post with the Johnson administration.

He said, however, that no one has ever approached him about the baseball commissioner's job and no one in the administration has contacted him directly or indirectly about a government position.

Keating plans to withhold a decision on his plans until next year.

It is now six months later and here is where we stand:

Gas and electric bills: two months overdue.

Grocery bill: no more credit—cash only.

Car payment: Thirty days late. Pay within 15 days or it's the bus for us.

Life insurance: Pay the last three premiums or we lose the policy.

Charity pledge: Unpaid.

All this seemed to hit us at once. When I asked what happened he accused me of taking money out of his wallet during the night. He knew better, of course.

Now that things are all fouled up he wants me to handle the family budget again. Shall I? Or would it be best to let him sweat it out?—LOOKING BETTER ALL THE TIME.

Dear Looking Better: For heaven's sake, Lady, this isn't HIS problem, it's yours, too.

Get back in there and get things squared away. Your husband should not be ashamed that you do a better job handling money than he does. Most wives do. And I don't want to hear any beefs from this from my male readers. It's the beautiful truth, Boys.

Job Rumors For Keating Are Flying

Missouri's champion corn grower and his wife display some of the trophies they received for winning the statewide corn growing contest sponsored by the Missouri Farmers Association. In addition to the trophies they received an expense paid Florida vacation. Vern Bergman, Harrisonville, averaged 289.58 bushels an acre to win the championship. The average yield for all corn in Missouri this year is estimated by the government to be 51 bushels an acre. To produce this crop splitting crop, Bergman planted his corn in 18 inch rows, applied an abundance of fertilizer, plowed deep and relied on minimum tillage.

In Central Algeria

Reds, Methodist Minister In Quiet Battle for Souls

LES OUADHIA, Algeria (AP) — The Methodist Church and the Soviet Communist party are waging a quiet battle for souls in this little upland village in central Algeria.

The Russians have arrived in numbers, assisted by groups from satellite countries. Matched against them are the Rev. John Paolini, from Cranbury, N.J., and his wife, Marilyn. He has been a Methodist minister for 10 years, four of them in Algeria and the past 14 months in this village.

The Russians have started building a village for Algerians not far from here. The job started with considerable fanfare six months ago but has slowed down. Young Russians, Yugoslavs, Czechs, Bulgarians and Algerians are living in tents near a wooden headquarters which displays pictures of Alexei N. Kosygin, new premier of the Soviet Union, and Todor Zhivkov, premier of Bulgaria.

Young men come from the Soviet Union and satellites to work two to four months constructing the village. The aim is to build a model farm village with tile and brick apartment houses instead of the rock houses usual in this part of the country. They are running a small school, teaching French to Algerian teenagers who didn't write any language at all.

Signs in the headquarters urge everybody to work for communism and against corruption, capitalism and dishonesty. One of Algerian President Ahmed Ben Bella's slogans urges Algerians to be ready to die for the country.

Paolini has his home a short distance away in the village. Russians have called on him and he has visited the Soviet camp but they don't see much of one another. He runs a library where he teaches French and English to Algerians. His wife teaches a kindergarten and primary class. In a little church he preaches in French and a translator converts it into Kabylie since this is Kabylie country—an old center of resistance against the French.

"I tell them stories from the Bible," he said. "They like the stories where the good people triumph over the bad."

Many of those Bible stories also are in the Koran, and they sound familiar to some of the 150 or so villagers who crowd into the church on Sunday.

Young people come to his library located conveniently in a main street of the village. It is far better stocked than the library in the Soviet camp, but he would like more illustrated American magazines.

The Soviet camp will contain a small hospital. The Methodists have been running a hospital at Zeoui, also in the Kabylie country, for more than 30 years.

The Russians are expected to bring in machinery to show the villagers modern farming. That will make an impression, but so far the pastor is doing all right.

A Woman Bailiff Appointed By Judge In District Court

By JOE MCKNIGHT
Associated Press Writer

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — If necessary is the mother of invention District Judge William C. Kandt has one of the neatest necessities ever to adorn a court room.

She is Mrs. Robert A. (Sylvia) Steele, a former fashion model, who took over Monday as court bailiff, a job generally thought to be only for strong-armed lawmen.

Kandt said hiring the attractive blonde is a practical solution to his growing need for a secretary and receptionist.

State law permits him to hire only a court reporter and a bailiff and the need for a bailiff with muscle has diminished in recent years, Kandt said.

"The court reporter is not always available for office work so the thought developed to

The meeting was presided over by Clinton Black, president, with invocation by Rev. Charles Hendrickson. Christmas music was played during the luncheon by Mrs. Lillian Maynard.

Two new members, Dale Bredwell and Clayton Edwards were installed by Lee Deason.

A letter from Civil Defense was read by the president on the 12 meetings of the medical self-help to be held. Dick Witzig, who is a Civil Defense instructor, explained the necessity and the value of such training and asked to present a program on it at a later December meeting.

Lions Club Prepares For Follies of '64

The Sedalia Lions Club announced today that production and layout of the second presentation of their "Follies of '64" is progressing on schedule and that everything is in readiness for their 8 p.m. Saturday night, Dec. 5, performance at Smith-Cotton High School Auditorium.

While the principal acts of the spring performance have been retained, a new production, based upon the format of the various Miss America contests, has been embodied in the Saturday night production.

It is expected that at least some of the contestants will embellish the Lions Club float in the Saturday morning, Christmas Parade. As the winner will not be named until Saturday night, no one will know which of the beauties on the float will be the ultimate winner.

Names were drawn for circle membership for the year.

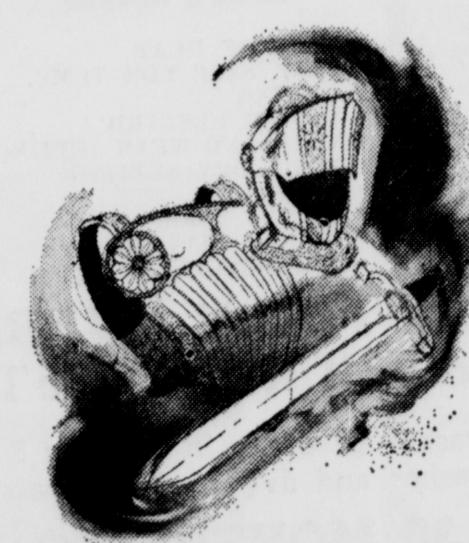

The meeting was closed by praying The Lord's Prayer in unison. Chris Morrow and Arnold Peterman served refreshments.

Thomas Kanza

First Congo College Grad Fights Western Influence

By ANDREW BOROWIEC NAIROBI, Kenya (AP) — In the safety of the Kenyan capital, the Congo's first college graduate is developing a widespread campaign against Western influence in his turbulent homeland.

Thomas Kanza, polite, suave "foreign minister" of the rebel regime of Christophe Gbenye, appears to have won the first round of his battle.

The special commission on the Congo of the Organization of African Unity has condemned American and Belgian intervention to save white hostages in rebel areas.

It called for a summit meeting of African chiefs of state on the Congo and proposed a series of steps which ultimately would limit the power of the Leopoldville government of Premier Moise Tshombe.

At this stage, Kanza is the only leader of the left-leaning nationalist revolt whose voice can be heard outside the war-swept jungle of the northeast Congo.

He has utilized it fully, playing on Africa's distrust of Tshombe, frequently described here as a "lackey of imperialism" and "tool of colonialists."

Against Tshombe's theory that order in the Congo can be restored only with the help of whites, Kanza presented his own — that African nationalism with Communist backing will sooner or later triumph.

Informed sources say his arguments fell on fertile ground among restive politicians of Africa.

Failure by the West to win any decisive victories in Africa has strengthened Kanza's arguments. Africa's susceptibility for extremism, its feeling of inferiority toward the former colonizers and desire to "get even" with them have further played into Kanza's hands.

What remains to be seen is whether the meeting of Africa's leaders can launch an effective campaign against Tshombe's regime which is backed by the United States and Belgium.

Hitherto, this backing has seldom been total. The recent history of Africa has shown that half measures seldom succeed on this continent.

"If the Belgians and Americans want to win the war in the Congo, why don't they throw thousands of troops into the battle?" asked a Kenyan official. "In the eyes of independent Africa they would be just as guilty as for launching 600 paratroopers who have not won anything."

Most Africans fail to see the humanitarian aspect of the paratroop rescue operation. To them it was a case of "Western

Fearful Probe May Jeopardize The Prosecution

TOPEKA (AP)—Police Chief Dana Hummer has asked for a meeting with Atty. Gen. William M. Ferguson on the Gladys Johnson slaying case.

Hummer said Tuesday he had written Ferguson that he believes a state investigation of handling of the case by law enforcement officials might jeopardize prosecution.

Ferguson ordered the Kansas Bureau of Investigation to probe the case after receiving petitions urging ouster of Shawnee County Sheriff Lew Falley.

Hummer said there is some doubt about authority of a state agency assuming supervision of a local agency. "Our main interest must now be to insure the integrity of the investigation," Hummer wrote Ferguson. "It is felt that the prosecution of this case might be jeopardized by another agency duplicating an existing investigation."

Charged with kidnap and murder in the death of the 7-year-old Topeka Negro girl is William F. Zimmer, 45, of Kansas City, Kan. The girl disappeared Nov. 14 and her body was found a week later near St. Marys, Kan.

Dies In Attempt To Outrun Train

aggression" with the resulting blow to U.S. prestige.

Reports from the Congo's battle regions speak of continuing fighting between Tshombe's forces and rebel "simbas" — lions.

Any loss of ground by the central government's task force spearheaded by white mercenaries is bound to strengthen Kanza's position.

A graduate of Louvain University in Belgium in 1956, Kanza was the first Congolese to obtain a university degree. Later he studied at Bruges and Harvard universities.

An associate of the late Prince Lumumba, the Congo's first premier, Kanza served the Cyrille Adoula regime as an ambassador to London and to the United Nations.

After a bitter quarrel with Tshombe over the use of white mercenaries and advisers, Kanza joined the Stanleyville rebels and became their spokesman abroad.

Says Burch Will Stay

Barry Reveals Republicans Planning a Summit Meeting

EDITOR'S NOTE — In this exclusive AP interview, Sen. Barry Goldwater tells of plans for a GOP summit meeting and gives his views on demands by some Republicans that the party chairman be replaced. Goldwater says he does not plan to grant additional interviews or hold news conferences.

BY JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater said today he plans to meet soon with Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon for a "general discussion" of the Republican party's future course.

The defeated GOP presidential nominee said in an interview on his return to Washington from Phoenix, Ariz., that he doesn't know where the summit conference discussion will lead. But he indicated he is willing to cooperate with the former president and the former vice president in trying to bring peace among the bickering factions of the Republican party.

Goldwater said the meeting originally had been scheduled for next Thursday at Eisenhower's office at Gettysburg, Pa., but had to be delayed because of Nixon's trip to Japan. He added, however, he hopes it can be fitted into the schedules of all three principals before his return to Arizona next week.

Goldwater made it clear he would encourage the formation of the kind of advisory council suggested by some GOP governors and other party leaders to bring all factions into the formulation of future party policy.

"I tried to get Milton Eisenhower's group to continue its work," he said. "I thought they were making some headway."

Eisenhower, brother of the former president and head of Johns Hopkins University, is chairman of the Republican Critical Issues Council. The council, a panel of leading Republicans, issued GOP policy statements through special task forces during the recent presidential campaign.

Goldwater remained adamant in his opposition to the replacement of Republican National Chairman Dean Burch, his personal choice for the job after the San Francisco nominating convention.

"They are not going to throw Burch out," he said. "They don't have the votes."

This opposition by the presidential nominee to any replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

Goldwater said he regards himself now as "a free man," able to speak out on issues of paramount interest to the nation. He indicated he no longer feels any of the restraints he implied had been placed on him as a presidential candidate in dealing with international issues.

Goldwater indicated his criticism may center on President

IN A SPECIAL ceremony Tuesday the MFA Poultry & Egg Division received the CRYOVAC L for leadership award from an official of the CRYOVAC firm, a national food packaging materials manufacturer. The L Award, given for the highest standards of product and package quality, is awarded to a select group in the turkey industry, according to a packaging firm executive, Don Suchy. Suchy (left) presented the award, which includes a red, white and blue leadership pennant and a bronze plaque, to Homer Crow, plant manager, in the presence of about 25 company employees. The plant employees played a major part in winning the award, through their continuous efforts toward producing the finest finished packages, making the success of the packaging program possible.

Cancer Bandages By Willing Workers

Bandages were rolled and cancer pads made by Ready and Willing Workers Club in November at the home of Mrs. Nancy Long and Miss Lottie Hunt, Clarksburg.

The annual Christmas party will be held Dec. 3 at the home of Mrs. Maud Leonard.

Rosetta Stone

The Rosetta Stone received its name from having been accidentally found in 1799 by one of Napoleon's officers, while excavating at Fort St. Julian, four miles from Rosetta, a town at the western mouth of the Nile.

Goldwater, who has not met with reporters except for a brief news conference in Jamaica, said he is going over to the side of the writing men and does not intend to have additional news conferences or interviews.

The senator, bronzed from his Jamaica vacation and a subsequent rest at his Phoenix home, gave no indications that he was downcast by his landslide defeat by Johnson.

"They can't discount the fact that 27 million Americans voted for me," he said.

When his interviewer noted that other Republicans contended this did not represent wholly GOP conservative strength but included Republicans who did not necessarily agree with his views but opposed Johnson and his program, Goldwater replied cryptically:

"That's what they say. I think the conservatives are going to be heard from."

Republican governors, meeting in Denver this weekend, may come up with some recommendations for realigning the party organization. Burch has called a Jan. 21-22 meeting of the National Committee in Chicago at which he plans to ask for a vote of confidence.

The newest demand for replacement of Burch came Tuesday night on Viet Nam and what narrator Chet Huntley called "a mad war." Color film dramatically illustrated the difference between the plush, easy life in Saigon, and the Viet Cong terror nearby in rice paddies and villages where each day men are ambushed and die as the guerrillas strike — and disappear.

Percy proposed setting up a national policy committee. He suggested that it be headed by Gov. Robert Smylie of Idaho, Sen. Thurston B. Morton of Kentucky or Rep. Robert Taft Jr. of Ohio.

They are not going to throw Burch out," he said. "They don't have the votes."

This opposition by the presidential nominee to any replacement of the national chairman at this time was concurred in by congressional Republican leaders who think it is too early to take such drastic action.

Goldwater said he regards himself now as "a free man," able to speak out on issues of paramount interest to the nation. He indicated he no longer feels any of the restraints he implied had been placed on him as a presidential candidate in dealing with international issues.

Movie Set Havoc From Long DelaysBy BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The atmosphere of the set made the film seemed aptly titled — "Morituri," Latin for "we who are about to die."

Stage 8 at 20th Century-Fox had that funereal hush that either indicates the director is a quiet, meticulous worker or the picture is in trouble. The latter seemed evident by the presence of a clot of production minds, headed by Producer Aaron Rosenberg, conferring gravely near one of the sets.

Speed seemed to be the problem with "Morituri," or rather, the lack of it. The film was in its 73rd day, an uncommon length in today's Hollywood, especially since the end of shooting is not in view.

If the set had problems, they seemed of little moment to costar Yul Brynner. His dressing room had a sign over the door reading "Casino de Brynner," and he was seated with the back of his shiny head to the outside, playing poker with a trio of coworkers.

Near the stage entrance leading lady Janet Margolin was sipping coffee from a paper cup and lamenting her lot.

"I started on the picture in September, and so far I've had two scenes," she remarked.

At the far end of Stage 8 was the long dressing-room trailer belonging to Marlon Brando. He was closeted within until an assistant raced to the various dressing rooms to notify the principals that a scene would be made shortly.

Brando emerged. He wore a tweed suit with an SS insignia. He plays a German who has been induced by the British to forestall the scuttling of a rubber-laden freighter captained by Brynner, an anti-Nazi but dutyminded German.

"How goes the picture?" I asked Brando unhesitatingly. He grimaced. "It's like pushing a prune pit with my nose from here to Cucamonga," he replied, "and here I find myself in Azusa."

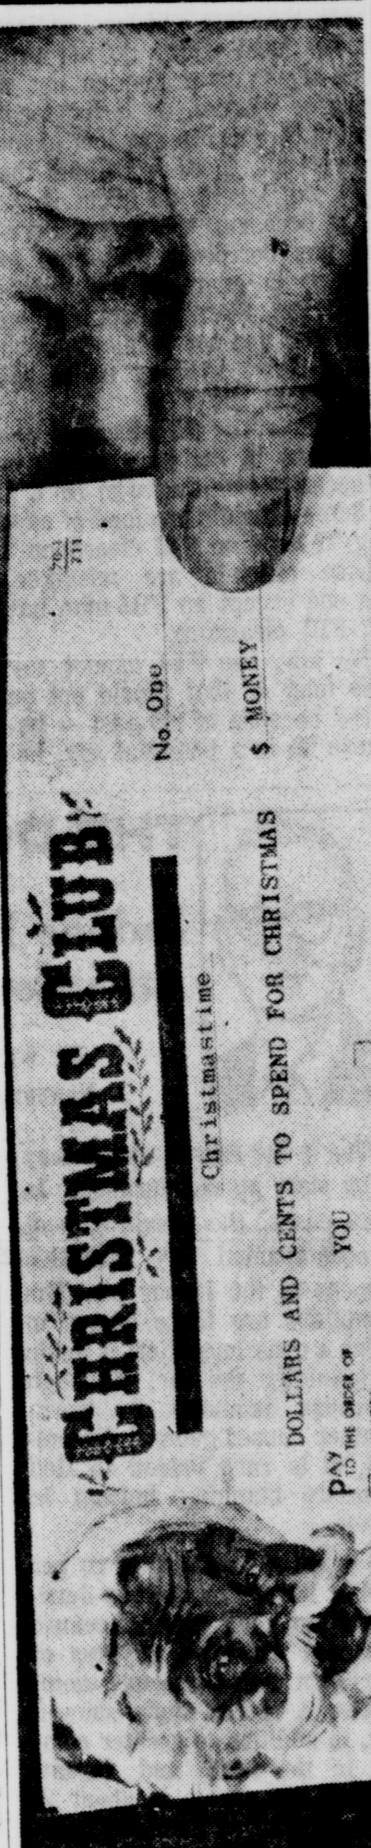

The finish date of the film keeps getting pushed back, he said. Now it's supposed to end Dec. 15, but Brando acknowledged he had no hopes of getting out of the trenches by Christmas.

Why the lengthy shooting? It appears to stem from the methods of Bernhard Wicki, noted German director who is making his first Hollywood film. He is methodical and painstaking in a manner which economy-minded studios no longer enjoy.

"But it isn't all his fault," said Brando. "We started without a finished script."

That recalls another Rosenberg-Brando venture titled "Mutiny On the Bounty," and the actor winced in remembrance. Never again, he vowed. All his future films will not commence before he has a completed script in his hand.

"Of course if this picture is good — and disinterested friends of mine say it will be — all the grief will be forgotten," said he. "Then everyone's home free. But when a picture is bad, all you can do is stick a lampshade on your head and stand real still and hope nobody notices you."

Most everyone knows that garbage can create an offensive odor, but whoever heard of it causing anyone a headache?

But more than an aspirin may be needed to ease headaches likely to develop for the city administration over the Sedalia garbage ordinance which went into effect October 1 levying a $1.00 monthly fee for collection service which heretofore had been without charge.

Overheard at the coffee shop and elsewhere recently are comments concerning provisions in the ordinance which are being challenged as unconstitutional. Particular emphasis is placed on sections authorizing the City Water Department to discontinue water service to any customer who fails to pay the $1.00 garbage fee.

"I would just like to see the city cut off my water if I paid my water bill and didn't pay the garbage fee. Why, the water department is simply a billing agency for the city sanitation department. If I pay my water bill, I'm going to get water or someone is going to be sued," is a typical recent comment.

Another apparent contradiction in the garbage ordinance is getting attention. One section states that if more than one container is necessary to hold garbage or mixed refuse accumulated at a customer's premises . . . all containers shall be placed at the same location on the premises for pickup. The inference here is that the customer may use more than one container. This is reasonable, particularly in the winter time, when collection is made only once a week and some places have more garbage than one container may hold.

But read on, and the ordinance states: "Residential service shall consist of the removal of garbage and mixed refuse substances . . . not exceeding the contents of one 30 gallon container weighing with contents when full, not over 75 pounds . . . twice weekly, when needed."

As old Uncle Fud might opine: The garbage ordinance is about as full of mangle-mangle as the mixed refuse substances and other provisions it refers to.

City council might be smart to re-evaluate the garbage ordinance provisions before they are given the hot foot by some disgruntled customer.

Accentuate Positive

Everyone knows the story of the nut who banged his head against the wall because it felt so good when he stopped.

Well, modern psychology has looked into this situation and found that it just doesn't work. That is, it's not the absence of bad things that makes you happy in life, it's the presence of positive, good things.

This is the conclusion of Dr. Norman M. Bradburn, University of Chicago psychologist, after a survey of people in four Illinois towns—one prosperous, two with depressed economies and one in between.

It was found that a person usually described himself as happy when there were enough positive satisfactions to outweigh

WALL STREET JOURNAL: The Same Old Army.—If you ever served in the Army, you know how it was. An expert in foreign languages would find himself in a machine gun squad and maybe a communications wizard turned up in the Quartermaster Corps handing out uniforms.

So you may be cheered to know that today things are pretty much the same. The comptroller general has sent a report to Congress, "Improper Utilization of Trained Enlisted Personnel," which says that 35,000 enlisted men throughout the Army have been "misassigned" with the result that "$48.7 million in training costs is being wasted." The comptroller found, among other misassignments, a medical specialist being used as a mess steward, a building engineer as a file clerk and a lithographer as a military policeman.

Used to be, the Army pretended this sort of thing either wasn't really going on or attributed it to the difficulty of placing the flood of wartime draftees or enlistees in slots for which they had been trained. But now the Army simply says, in effect, that yes indeed, there are some square pegs in round holes, but that the rate "is not viewed as excessive."

The Army, indeed, declines to use the term "misassignment" at all. It prefers "mal-assignment." But when it comes to decisions that promote federal waste, in the Army or anywhere else, it seems to us that a mis is as good as a mal.

Washington Merry-Go-RoundLameduck Gets Going Away Present

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Lame-duck Rep. William K. Van Pelt, R-Wis., has received a "going away" present from the House Space Committee — A junket to the Far East, accompanied by his wife.

To keep them company, Chairman George Miller, D-Calif., went along, plus three other committee colleagues, plus some top brass—namely, Lt. Gen. L. I. Davis of the Air Force, Edmond C. Buckley of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency, and Thomas F. Conlin of the State Department.

The wives of all these gentlemen, except Conlin's, went along — at their own expense — on the festive trip which covered half the globe. It started in Alaska, then jumped over to Tokyo, then went all the way to Australia and New Zealand with a stop at Manila enroute. The party is returning by way of sunny Hawaii.

Those who accompanied Van Pelt on his "going away" tour are: Reps. Olin Teague, D-Tex., Bob Casey, D-Tex., and Joseph Karth, D-Minn.

Chances are that the men won't suffer from fatigue while inspecting space "tracking sites" in the Far East, which is the official purpose of the junket. For they can relax in the finest hotels and foreign embassies, also shopping centers, with the tax-payers footing most of the bills.

The junketeers return to the USA, Dec. 9, at which time Van Pelt, who was defeated in the November election, can go back to Wisconsin somewhat consoled by the fare-well largesse of the Space Committee.

All of a Sudden He Seems TallerThe World Today*Neither a Solution Nor a New Idea

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — The fog never lifted.

As the American-backed war against Communist guerrillas in South Viet Nam steadily deteriorated there was a dense fog over this country's plans, if any, for saving the chaotic situation.

Then the U.S. ambassador to Saigon, Maxwell D. Taylor, came home to talk to President Johnson. After they met Tuesday the White House issued a statement which indicated neither a solution nor a new idea.

This doesn't mean the two men didn't reach a decision on how to save Viet Nam and perhaps all Southeast Asia from communism. But they were very careful in the vaguely worded statement not to say so.

By their very vagueness they left themselves enormous room for a far tougher American policy — if that's what they have in mind — but this becomes understandable only if you can remember the background.

The White House statement said:

"The President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people and government in their struggle to defeat the externally supported insurgency and aggression being conducted against them.

"It was noted that this policy accords with the terms of the joint congressional resolution of Aug. 10, 1964, which remains in full force and effect."

When North Vietnamese PT boats attacked two U.S. destroyers in the Gulf of Tonkin last August, Johnson promptly ordered American planes to retaliate by bombing North Vietnamese coastal bases, patrol boats and oil installations. That was Aug. 4.

This attack spread over five hours and 100 miles of coast. The next day Johnson asked Congress to give him advance approval for any steps he thought necessary in the Southeast Asia predicament. Congress obliged.

It approved a resolution authorizing Johnson to "take all necessary steps, including use of the armed forces," to assist South Viet Nam or any other country under the protection of the Southeast Asia collective defense treaty which asked for help in defense of its freedom.

Although Johnson said "the United States intends no rashness and seeks no wider war," this resolution was a green light. The fact that he referred to it Tuesday could mean he now intends far more drastic action than anything this country has attempted yet.

But, if so, it almost certainly means widening the war, which is what Johnson said in August he didn't intend to do. There was no hint of this in Tuesday's statement but then, of course, it might be poor strategy to telegraph a punch to the Communists ahead of time.

Yet, all through 1964 Johnson has given the impression of a man reluctant to do anything different from what has been done in the past and what has been done was limited even though the war crumbled day by day.

Johnson's hesitancy about broadening the war is understandable, although hesitancy may lose it. If, for instance, North Viet Nam were bombed, Red China might come to its aid, thus turning a small war into an American-Chinese war.

Meanwhile, it's not just the Red guerrillas who are frustrating the American efforts so far. The South Vietnamese themselves are doing it, slowly sinking their country into chaos with their own instability and riots against their government.

The White House statement — that "the President reaffirmed the basic U.S. policy of providing all possible and useful assistance to the South Vietnamese people" — is a repetition of what he said last Jan. 1.

He promised the Vietnamese that American forces and materiel — as "needed" — would be kept in South Viet Nam to help them in "achieving victory."

At other times in 1964 he promised this country "would stand firm" in Viet Nam and that withdrawal was "strategically unwise and morally unthinkable." At the same time he said enlargement of the war would be "reckless."

Washington ViewpointWhat the FBI Can And Cannot Do Under Law

By RAY CROMLEY
Washington Correspondent
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — Some of the criticisms leveled at J. Edgar Hoover's Federal Bureau of Investigation in recent weeks indicate there is much misinformation on what the FBI is and what it is permitted by law to do.

First — the FBI is not a national police. By law, it cannot go into a state, county, city or town and take over from local officials. It must work through and with local officials, though it may conduct independent investigations of federal violations.

Second — by law, the FBI has no power to protect anyone — whether the president of the United States, other government officials, civil rights workers or persons being illegally deprived of the right to vote.

Protection comes under the Secret Service, the federal marshals, the state and local police. If the local police do not provide adequate protection for a man or woman, or if the local police or sheriffs are inefficient or corrupt, there is nothing the FBI can legally do about it.

On occasion, the Secret Service has borrowed FBI men to help in guarding the president. But these agents are on loan and are not (while on such guard duty) working under orders from the FBI.

Third — The FBI does not decide who in the government is a security risk and who isn't.

Some officials are fond of saying "I have an FBI clearance." These officials are mistaken. No one except an FBI man has an FBI clearance.

By law, the FBI cannot say this man or that should not be hired because of his past — because he is a potential spy, because he drinks too much, because he may have loyalty to a foreign government, because he talks too much, because whatever knowledge he picks up may be for sale, because he may be a homosexual or because he may have a weakness for women or horses.

The FBI is allowed only to report the facts, statements and other evidence its agents pick up from interviewing people and looking up records and such.

The FBI is not allowed to make evaluations of this evidence or reach conclusions as to whether the man or woman investigated is or is not a security risk.

One exception: The FBI does make evaluations of the suitability of all FBI personnel.

The government department or agency employing, or interested in employing, a man or woman takes the FBI evidence and makes its own evaluations and its own decisions as to whether to grant a security clearance or not. That is, the decision is made at the White House, the State Department, the Department of Defense, or wherever.

Fourth — The FBI doesn't normally investigate the backgrounds of Senate or congressional staff employees. Any such investigations are normally made by the Senate or House Committees concerned. (There are certain committees which can ask the FBI for assistance).

The FBI's director, and a succession of presidents and congressmen, have taken part in keeping the FBI's functions strictly limited. The fear has been that if the FBI or any similar federal agency were given police-decision powers, it could be the first step toward creating a possible police state.

THE DOCTOR SAYS*Indoor Humidity Needs Attention In Winter

By Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Association

This is the season when many of us start up our furnaces. In most cases, the resulting heat is accompanied by excessive dryness of the indoor air. The exceptions are those homes in which a conscious effort is made to humidify the air. Although excessive humidity in warm weather causes general discomfort, it is rare indeed to find adequate humidity indoors in winter.

A relative humidity of 20 per cent or lower is definitely detrimental to your health because it causes excessive dryness of your skin and mucous membranes. A recent study showed that, in addition to greater comfort in the nose and throat, bringing the air up to about 45 per cent relative humidity helped prevent colds and other respiratory diseases. It also made breathing easier for persons with asthma, chronic bronchitis and emphysema and facilitated the control of itching skin diseases.

Several types of efficient humidifiers are available. The old method of putting a pan of water on the radiator is woefully inadequate. Q—Is Gaucher's disease a childhood ailment? Is there any cure for it?

A—Gaucher's disease is a chronic hereditary condition that is characterized by enlargement of the spleen and anemia. The onset of symptoms may occur in childhood and the earlier the onset, the more severe the disease. It is more common in girls than in boys. When the disease is first recognized in infancy, treatment is of no avail. But in older children, removal of the spleen is followed by improvement in the general health and a good outlook for the future.

Q—Three months ago I broke both bones in my left leg. The latest X-ray shows no knitting together of the smaller bone. My doctor says this does not matter. Is there any danger that the splintered ends could injure the flesh?

A—Your doctor is right. The tibia (the larger bone) will serve you very well. If, when you broke your leg, the skin was not broken, there is no danger of infection. If your doctor performed an open operation to unite the splintered fragments, infection could be introduced. Fibrous tissue or callus grows over the sharp ends of the fragments and this protects the soft tissues from injury.

We the WomenThat Lonely Feeling

By Ruth Millett
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Is the American woman of today so busy going to meetings, chauffering children, taking classes, staying young, and trying to be the only companion her husband needs that she is actually lonely because she hasn't time to be neighborly or to make real and close friendships? I'm beginning to wonder.

Because so many letters come my way written by women who confess that though they "manage to keep busy" they are lonely.

"I go to meetings," writes one, "but I never seem to get any better acquainted with the other women who attend. They speak or smile and nod and maybe say 'how are you?' and that's about it."

"I leave home feeling lonely and come back feeling just as lonely."

"My neighbors speak in a friendly manner, but there is no visiting in the neighborhood."

So it's a vicious circle. Because she doesn't want to be lonely, a woman fills her life with organized activities and then she seems to be too busy to be bothered by the neighbor or fellow club member who is also lonely and would like her for a friend.

And it will probably be that way as long as women feel that the answer to loneliness is to go, go.

BERRY'S WORLD

Hoover Tells King Arrests Coming Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover told Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Tuesday that the FBI has infiltrated the Ku Klux Klan and other racist groups much as it did the Communist party, it was learned after the two had chatted in the FBI director's office.

And, King told reporters after the 1½-hour session, Hoover indicated arrests will be made in the next few days in the slaying of three civil rights workers near Philadelphia, Miss.

King requested the meeting and Hoover agreed to it. There was no comment from the FBI director afterward, but King, a leader in the Negroes' drive for equal opportunities and rights, told newsmen: "I might say the discussion was quite amicable."

Last month, Hoover departed from his general practice of not granting interviews and told a group of women reporters King was "the most notorious liar in this country."

King, a minister and a winner of the Nobel Peace Prize, had claimed FBI agents in Georgia, because they were Southerners, did not investigate complaints from Negroes.

Later, the Negro leader said Hoover "has apparently faltered under the awesome burden, complexities and responsibilities of his office."

Hoover's disclosure of FBI infiltration into racist organizations is the first to this effect. His comment that arrests in the Philadelphia slayings will be made in the next few days follows an FBI announcement of last week that "we know who is responsible."

Last Aug. 4, FBI agents found the bodies of the three rights workers — Michael H. Schwerner, 24, Andrew Goodman, 20, and James E. Chaney, 21 — in a recently built earth dam five miles southwest of the Mississippi city. They had disappeared June 21.

Last week an FBI spokesman said "it has not yet been possible to obtain evidence or confessions that would insure successful prosecution." Tuesday spokesmen for the FBI refused to pinpoint the day the arrests Hoover spoke of would be made.

Otherwise, it was learned that in the talk between Hoover and King:

— King expressed appreciation to Hoover for what the FBI has accomplished in the South and said it had overcome many obstacles.

— King said the very presence of the FBI in the South helps deter further civil rights violations and that he is urging his followers to work closely with the FBI.

Continents Exploiting Westerns

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Achting! Head 'em off at der crossroads."

"Thee town eesn't beeg enough for both of us, Ludwig."

This is the kind of dialogue that may be emerging from European films as Continental movie makers continue exploiting their discovery of the Western. Once considered Hollywood's exclusive property, it has been taken over by producers from Tokyo to Prague.

Australian-born Ron Randell has returned from Europe with a report on the ersatz horse operas. He should know. He was in one — a Viennese production filmed in Yugoslavia and Berlin.

"It's true," he told a disbelieving reporter. "The film was called 'Hot Like the Wind' and I was the only one from Hollywood in the cast. The rest were German and Swiss."

"It was made for an Austrian company called Stadhalle, and we shot the exteriors in two places in Yugoslavia. One was a ranch and the other was a Western street. The company built it with an Italian firm which was going to make a couple of Westerns after we finished."

"Later, a German company came in on the production, so we shot the interiors in Berlin, mostly of the ranch house. Our director was Rolf Olsen, a Viennese who had also shot a Western in the Canary Islands."

"Westerns are now being made in Italy, Spain, Yugoslavia, Sweden, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria, and, I understand, in Russia. The Europeans are actually paying more attention to the Western than Hollywood, where they seldom make the big Westerns any more."

What's more, he believes the Europeans are doing a good job of it.

"They seem to be going back to the original sources for their authenticity," Ron remarked. "Here in Hollywood, the same old directors seem to do the Westerns, and they use the

Living Costs Keep Rising,
But Not Due To InflationBy SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — The cost of living continues to rise but the government assures us that this isn't inflation.

This can be confusing to multitudes of Americans who look upon inflation in terms of consumer prices. When the cost of goods and services goes up they call it inflation. Or, put the other way around, when the dollar buys less than last year, to them that's inflation.

Movie Going To Pieces,
Says KaelBy BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Are movies going to pieces?" asks an article in the Atlantic Monthly by Pauline Kael, who proceeds to answer, "yes."

Miss Kael, who is billed as an author, lecturer and authority on films, criticizes the growing lack of logic in movies, even the most expensive ones. She cites the swift and unexplained ending of "Bridge on the River Kwai"; the garbled plot of "Whatever Happened to Baby Jane"; the utter confusion of "55 Days at Peking"; the sudden clairvoyance of Cleopatra in the film of that name; the puzzling story turns of "The Cardinal."

The cost of living, as measured by the government's consumer price index, rose on almost all fronts in October to hit a record 108.5 per cent of the 1957-59 average. This was 1.2 per cent higher than in October 1963. But the rise held within the range that has characterized it for most of the last four years. The government expects the rise to continue at about the same rate the rest of this year. The index means that it takes $108.50 now to buy what you could get for $100 in the 1957-59 period.

Audiences used to have an almost rational passion for getting the story straight," writes the critic. "Although the movies might be banal or vulgar, they were rarely incoherent. A movie had to tell some story that held together; a plot had to parse."

She concludes: "Movies are going to pieces; they are disintegrating, and the something called cinema is not movies raised to an art but rather movies diminished, movies that look 'artistic.' Movies are being stripped of all the 'nonessentials' — that is to say, faces, action, details, stories, places, everything that makes them entertaining and joyful."

She's right, you know. The one thing that impressed a reviewer who sees the major output of the studios is the sloppiness of the product. Today's films are filled with incongruities, pointless jokes, technical errors, and anachronisms that any bright 11th-grade English student could correct in the script.

Why is this so?

The answer seems to lie in the abdication of authority by the major studios. Bosses like Louis B. Mayer and Harry Cohn were despotic and crude, but they did control things. They and their deputies insisted that script be finished before shooting started, that the story should be understandable and the casting apt, and that the schedule proceed in a businesslike manner.

"Today, people in Hollywood are more interested in making deals than in making movies," said a top executive.

The wheeler-dealers have moved into the industry, setting up packages to find a buyer, then moving on to the next deal. The film makers are left to their own devices, with no steady hand to guide them.

The influence of European film makers has been chaotic. Working on scant budgets, Italian and French directors have been able to indulge their own whimsies. The results are often incomprehensible to the general public, but hailed by highbrow critics. Hungry for praise, American directors have sought to emulate the Europeans, with dismal results.

Miss Kael predicts gloomily: "Cinema, I suspect, is going to become so rarified, so private in meaning, and so lacking in audience appeal that in a few years the foundations will be desperately and hopelessly trying to bring it back to life, as they are now doing with the theater."
